PART II «SYNACOMEX 2000» Continent Grain Charterparty

1. Owners, Charterers

It is this day agreed between the party designated in Box 3, Owners of the Vessel named and described in Box 5, being now in position and expected ready to load as mentioned in Box 7, and the party designated in Box 4 as Charterers, THAT

2. Loading Port(s) and Cargo

The said Vessel being tight, staunch and in every way fit for the voyage, shall with all convenient speed proceed to the ~~port/~~ berth(s)/anchorage(s) place designated in Box 8, which in case of named port(s)/ berth(s)/anchorage(s) Owners acknowledge as safe and suitable for this Vessel and there load always afloat, unless safely aground has been specifically agreed in Box 8, in such safe berth, ~~dock, wharf or anchorage~~ where it is customary for vessels of similar size and draft to load as Charterers or their Agents or Shippers may direct a full and complete cargo of wheat and/or maize and/or rye and/or barley as described in Box 11 in metric tons (10% more or less in Owners' option) in bulk. Charterers Shippers have the option of using a second safe berth in port(s) (as per Box 8). The time for shifting between the two berths at any port(s) shall count as laytime, but shifting expenses shall be for Vessel's account, but only one time. Owners shall provide and install at their risk and expense and on their time all that is required for safe stowage of grain according to local and international regulations. Owners warrant vessel is able to load the contracted cargo and sail safely without requiring bagging/strapping/securing. The cargo shall not exceed what the Vessel can reasonably stow and carry over and above her bunkers, apparel, stores, provisions and accommodation. The whole cargo shall be carried and stowed under deck where it is readily accessible in unobstructed main holds. All cargo on board to be delivered. Furthermore, if stowage bags have been specifically agreed, the following shall apply: Charterers shall supply for stowage purposes a quantity of bagged cargo not exceeding the quantity specified in Box 11, which shall be stowed at their risk and expense. The number of bags signed for on Bills of Lading to be binding on Vessel and Owners, unless error or fraud be proved.

3. Discharging Port(s)

Being so loaded, the Vessel shall proceed with all convenient speed direct to the ~~place port/berth/anchorage~~ designated in Box 10, which in case of named port(s)/berth(s)/anchorage(s) Owners acknowledge as safe and suitable for this Vessel, and there discharge the cargo always afloat, unless safely aground has been specifically agreed in Box 10, in such safe berth, ~~dock, wharf or anchorage~~ where it is customary for vessels of similar size and draft to discharge as Charterers or their Agents or Receivers may direct. Charterers Receivers have the option of using a second safe berth in port(s) (as per Box 10). The time for shifting between the two berths at any port(s) shall count as laytime, but shifting expenses shall be for Vessel's account, but only one time.

4. Freight

The freight agreed under this Charter Party shall be as stated in Box 12, per metric ton on net Bill of Lading weight and shall be deemed earned upon signing and releasing Bills of Lading as cargo is loaded on board, prepaid discountless and non-returnable, Vessel and/or cargo lost or not lost. The freight shall be paid as specified in Box 13. All charges and dues levied on the cargo shall be for Charterers account and those levied on the Vessel howsoever assessed shall be for Owners account. Wharfages and berth occupancy dues, taxes on freight and or flag to be for Owners' account.

5. Loading and Discharging

Cargo shall be loaded, spout-trimmed and/or grab trimmed stowed at the risk and expense of Shippers/Charterers at the average rate stated in Box 14, per weather working day of 24 consecutive hours or pro-rata weather permitting.

Cargo shall be discharged at the risk and expense of Receivers/Charterers at the average rate stated in Box 15, ~~weather permitting, per weather working day of 24 consecutive hours or pro-rata.~~

Stowage shall be under Master's sole direction, supervision and responsibility. Shippers' and/or Charterers' representatives have the right to be on board the Vessel during loading, discharging or lightering for the purpose of inspecting the cargo and/or weighing. Charterers and Owners are allowed to work overtime, such expenses shall be for account of the party ordering same. If ordered by Port Authorities, overtime shall be for Charterers account. Overtime services rendered by ship's crew and officers shall be in all cases for Owners' account.

6. Laydays, Cancellation

At port of loading laytime shall not count before 08.00 hours on the layday date stated in Box 6 and in any case not before the date notified by the 3-40 days notice as per Clause 7. Should the Vessel's notice of readiness not be validly tendered as per Clause 8 before 09.00 hours on the cancelling day stated in Box 6, Charterers shall have the option of cancelling this charter at any time thereafter, but not later than one hour after the notice is validly tendered. Owners/master not to tender the NOR prior to beginning of laycan.

7. Vessel's Positions, Notices

Master and/or Owners shall give 10/7/5/3 days and thereafter 5/2/1 definite days notice of Vessel's expected readiness to load to the party designated in Box 9. Master and/or Owners shall give notice of Vessels Expected Time of Arrival (ETA) at discharging port as specified in Box 9. Master and/or Owners shall give the relevant parties immediate prompt advice of any substantial change in Vessel's ETA at loading and at discharging ports.

8. Laytime

Vessel's valid written notice of readiness to load and/or discharge shall be tendered ~~by hand or~~ by any means of telex or fax or e-mail telecommunication at the offices of Shippers/Charterers/ the Receivers or their Agents between 08.00 and 17.00 hours on all days except Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays or equivalent and between 08.00 hours and 12.00 hours on Saturdays unless a Holiday. Such notice of readiness shall only be delivered when Vessel is in the loading or discharging berth and in all respects ready to load/discharge. At loading port Shippers/Charterers or their Agents have the privilege to inspect Vessel's holds and reject the notice when holds are not clean, dry, odourless and in all respects ready to receive the cargo to Shippers/Charterers satisfaction. In case of dispute, an independent surveyor shall decide about Vessel's readiness to load, the party in the wrong bearing the costs. If the rejection of notice of readiness is undisputed or confirmed by surveyor the laytime will only start to count after the Vessel has validly tendered again when ready. Only when the loading and/or discharging berth is unavailable, Master may warrant that the Vessel is in all respects ready and may tender notice of readiness to load and/or discharge from any usual waiting place, whether in port or not, whether in free pratique or not, whether customs cleared or not. Laytime shall commence at 14.00 hours if notice of readiness to load and/or discharge is validly tendered at or before 12.00 hours and at 08.00 hours on the next working day if notice of readiness is validly tendered after 12.00 hours. Time used before commencement of laytime shall not count. Laytime shall not count between 12.00 hours on Saturdays or 17.00 hours on days preceding a Holiday and 08.00 hours on the following working day, unless used in which case half time actually used shall count. Any delays caused by ice, floods, fire, quarantine, or by cases of force majeure shall not count as laytime unless the Vessel is already on demurrage.

At discharging port, Vessel shall be consigned to the Agents designated in Box 18.	188 189
14. Extra Insurance	190
Extra insurance on cargo due to Vessels age and/or flag and/or class shall be for Owners account as per but limited to the amount specified in Box 19; such extra insurance shall be covered by Charterers for Owner's account and shall be deducted from initial payment settlement of freight.	191 192 193 194 195
15. Brokerage	196
A brokerage commission as stated in Box 20 on the gross amount of freight, deadweight and demurrage earned, is due to the party (ies) designated in Box 20 and is deductible from same unless non-deductible has been specifically agreed.	197 198 199 200 201
16. Address Commission	202
An address commission as stated in Box 21 on the gross amount of freight, deadweight and demurrage earned is due to Charterers and is deductible from freight, deadweight and demurrage.	203 204 205 206
17. ISM Clause	207
From the date of coming into force of the International Safety Management (ISM) Code in relation to the Vessel and thereafter during the currency of this Charter Party, the Owners shall procure that both the Vessel and the Company (as defined by the ISM Code) shall comply with the requirements of the ISM Code. Upon request the Owners shall provide a copy of the relevant Document of Compliance (DOC) and Safety Management Certificate (SMC) to the Charterers. Except as otherwise provided in this Charter Party, loss, damage, expense or delay caused by failure on the part of the Owners or the Company to comply with the ISM Code shall be for the Owners account.	208 209 210 211 212 213 214 215 216 217 218 219 220
18. Bills of Lading	221
The Master is to sign all clean on board /" shipped " Bills of Lading as and when presented without prejudice to the terms, conditions and exceptions of this Charter Party. If the Master delegates the signing of Bills of Lading to his Agents, he shall give them authority to do so in writing, copy of which is to be furnished to Charterers. See also clause 30.	222 223 224 225 226

20. Deviation	234
Deviation in saving or attempting to save life or property at sea or for bunkering purposes or any other reasonable deviation shall not be deemed an infringement of this Charter Party and the Owners shall not be liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom.	235 236 237 238 239
21. Lien Clause	240
The Owners shall have a lien on the cargo for freight, deadweight, demurrage, and average contribution due to them under this Charter Party. Charterers responsibility under this Charter to cease on cargo being shipped except for freight, deadfreight and demurrage.	241 242 243
22. Responsibilities and Immunities	244
Except as otherwise provided and stipulated in this Charter Party, it is hereby expressly agreed that this Charter Party shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Hague Rules contained in the International Convention for the Unification of certain rules relating to Bills of Lading, dated Brussels the 25th August 1924, as enacted in the country of shipment. These rules shall apply to any Bill of Lading issued under this Charter Party. When no such enactment is in force in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply, but in respect of shipments to which no such enactments are compulsorily applicable, the terms of the said Convention shall apply. In trades where the International Brussels Convention 1924 as amended by the Protocol signed at Brussels on February 23rd, 1968 - The Hague - Visby Rules - apply compulsorily, the provisions of the respective legislation shall apply. The Owners shall in no case be responsible for loss of or damage to cargo howsoever arising prior to loading into and after discharge from the Vessel.	245 246 247 248 249 250 251 252 253 254 255 256 257 258 259 260 261 262 263 264

Save to the extent otherwise in this Charter Party expressly provided, neither party shall be responsible for any loss or damage or delay or failure in performance hereunder resulting from Act of God, war, civil commotion, quarantine, strikes, lockouts, arrest or restraint of princes, rulers and peoples or any other event whatsoever which cannot be avoided or guarded against.	265 266 267 268 269 270 271	25. General Average and New Jason Clause	341
		General average shall be adjusted according to the York-Antwerp Rules 1994 or any subsequent modification thereof, but where the adjustment is made in accordance with the law and practice of the United States of America, the following Clause shall apply:	342 343 344 345 346
		In the event of accident, danger, damage or disaster before or after the commencement of the voyage, resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which, or for the consequence of which, the carrier is not responsible, by statute, contract or otherwise, the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods shall contribute with the carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods.	347 348 349 350 351 352 353 354 355 356 357
		If a salving ship is owned or operated by the carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the said waiving ship or ships belonged to strangers. Such deposit as the carrier or his Agents may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the goods and any salvage and special charges thereon shall, if required, be made by the goods, shippers, consignees or owners of the goods to the carrier before delivery and the Charterers shall procure that all Bills of Lading issued under this Charter Party shall contain the same clause.	358 359 360 361 362 363 364 365 366 367
23. Amended General Ice Clause	272	26. Both-to-Blame Collision Clause	368
Port of Loading	273	If the liability for any collision in which the Vessel is involved while performing this Charter Party falls to be determined in accordance with the laws of the United States of America, the following Clause shall apply:	369 370 371 372
a) In the event of the loading port being inaccessible by reason of ice when Vessel is ready to proceed from her last port or at any time during the voyage or on Vessel's arrival or in case frost sets in after Vessel's arrival, the Master for fear of being frozen in is at liberty to leave without cargo, and this Charter Party shall be null and void.	274 275 276 277 278 279	If the ship comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect or default of the Master, mariner, pilot or the servants of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship, the owners of the goods carried hereunder will indemnify the carrier against all loss or liability to the other or non-carrying ship or her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of or damage to or any claim whatsoever of the owners of the said goods, paid or payable by the other or non-carrying ship or her owners to the owners of the said goods and set off, recouped or recovered by the other or non-carrying ship or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying ship or carrier.	373 374 375 376 377 378 379 380 381 382 383 384 385
b) If during the loading the Master, for fear of Vessel being frozen in, deems it advisable to leave, he has liberty to do so with what cargo he has on board and to proceed to any other port or ports with option of completing cargo for Owner's benefit to any port or ports including port of discharge. Any part cargo thus loaded under this Charter Party to be forwarded to destination at Vessel's expense but against payment of freight, provided that no extra expenses be thereby caused to the Receivers, freight being paid on quantity delivered (in proportion if lumpsum), all other conditions as per Charter Party.	280 281 282 283 284 285 286 287 288 289 290	The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the Owners, Operators or those in charge of any ship or ships or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect to a collision or contact and the Charterers shall procure that all Bills of Lading issued under this Charter Party shall contain the same Clause.	386 387 388 389 390 391
c) In case of more than one loading port, and if one or more of the ports are closed by ice, the Master or Owners to be at liberty either to load the part cargo at the open port and fill up elsewhere for their own account as under section b) or to declare this Charter Party null and void unless Charterers agree to load full cargo at the open port.	291 292 293 294 295 296
Port of Discharge	297	27. War Risks ("Voywar 1993")	392
a) Should ice prevent Vessel from reaching port of discharge, Receivers shall have the option of keeping Vessel waiting until the re-opening of navigation and paying demurrage, or of ordering the Vessel to a safe and immediately accessible port where she can safely discharge without risk of detention by ice. Such orders to be given within 48 hours after Master or Owners have given notice to Charterers of the impossibility of reaching port of destination.	298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306	a) For the purpose of this Clause, the words:	393
b) If during discharging the Master for fear of Vessel being frozen in deems it advisable to leave, he has liberty to do so with what cargo he has on board and to proceed to the nearest accessible port where she can safely discharge.	307 308 309 310	(i) Owners shall include the shipowners, bareboat charterers, disponent-owners, managers or other operators who are charged with the management of the Vessel, and the Master; and	394 395 396 397
c) On delivery of the cargo at such port, all conditions of the Bill of Lading shall apply and Vessel shall receive the same freight as if she had discharged at the original port of destination, except that if the distance of the substituted port exceeds 100 nautical miles, the freight on the cargo delivered at the substituted port to be increased in proportion.	311 312 313 314 315 316 317	(ii) War Risks shall include any war (whether actual or threatened), act of war, civil war, hostilities, revolution, rebellion, civil commotion, warlike operations, the laying of mines (whether actual or reported), acts of piracy, acts of terrorists, acts of hostility or malicious damage, blockades (whether imposed against all vessels or imposed selectively against vessels of certain flags or ownership, or against certain cargoes or crews or otherwise howsoever), by any person, body, terrorist or political group, or the Government of any state whatsoever, which, in the reasonable judgement of the Master and/or the Owners, may be dangerous or are likely to be or to become dangerous to the Vessel, her cargo, crew or other persons on board the Vessel.	398 399 400 401 402 403 404 405 406 407 408 409 410
24. Amended Centrocon Strike Clause	318	b) If at any time before the Vessel commences loading, it appears that, in the reasonable judgement of the Master and/or the Owners, performance of the Charter Party, or any part of it, may expose, or is likely to expose, the Vessel, her cargo, crew or other persons on board the Vessel to War Risks, the Owners may give notice to the Charterers cancelling this Charter Party, or may refuse to perform such part of it as may expose, or may be likely to expose, the	411 412 413 414 415 416 417 418
If the cargo cannot be loaded by reason of Riots, Civil Commotions or of a Strike or Lock-out of any class of workmen essential to the loading of the cargo, or by reason of obstructions or stoppages beyond the control of the Charterers caused by Riots, Civil Commotions or a Strike or Lock-out on the Railways, or in the Docks, or other loading places, or if the cargo cannot be discharged by reason of Riots, Civil Commotions or of a Strike or Lock-out of any class of workmen essential to the discharge, the time for loading or discharging, as the case may be, shall not count during the continuance of such causes, provided that a Strike or Lock-out of the Shippers and/or Receivers men shall not prevent demurrage accruing if by the use of reasonable diligence they could have obtained other suitable labour at rates current before the Strike or Lock-out.	319 320 321 322 323 324 325 326 327 328 329 330 331 332 333
In case of any delay by reason of the before-mentioned causes, no claim for damages or demurrage, shall be made by the Charterers / Receivers of the cargo, or Owners of the Vessel. For the purpose, however, of settling despatch money accounts, any time lost by the Vessel through any of the above causes shall be counted as time used in loading or discharging, as the case may be.	334 335 336 337 338 339 340

Vessel, her cargo, crew or other persons on board the Vessel to War Risks; provided always that if this Charter Party provides that loading or discharging is to take place within a range of ports, and at the port or ports nominated by the Charterers the Vessel, her cargo, crew, or other persons onboard the Vessel may be exposed, or may be likely to be exposed, to War Risks, the Owners shall first require the Charterers to nominate any other safe port which lies within the range for loading or discharging, and may only cancel this Charter Party if the Charterers shall not have nominated such safe port or ports within 48 hours of receipt of notice of such requirement.

c) The Owners shall not be required to continue to load cargo for any voyage, or to sign Bills of Lading for any port or place, or to proceed or continue on any voyage, or on any part thereof, or to proceed through any canal or waterway, or to proceed to or remain at any port or place whatsoever, where it appears, either after the loading of the cargo commences, or at any stage of the voyage thereafter before the discharge of the cargo is completed, that, in the reasonable judgement of the Master and/or the Owners, the Vessel, her cargo (or any part thereof), crew or other persons on board the Vessel (or any one or more of them) may be, or are likely to be, exposed to War Risks. If it should so appear, the Owners may by notice request the Charterers to nominate a safe port for the discharge of the cargo or any part thereof, and if within 48 hours of the receipt of such notice, the Charterers shall not have nominated such a port, the Owners may discharge the cargo at any safe port of their choice (including the port of loading) in complete fulfillment of the Charter Party. The Owners shall be entitled to recover from the Charterers the extra expenses of such discharge and, if the discharge takes place at any port other than the loading port, to receive the full freight as though the cargo had been carried to the discharging port and if the extra distance exceeds 100 miles, to additional freight which shall be the same percentage of the freight contracted for as the percentage which the extra distance represents to the distance of the normal and customary route, the Owners having a lien on the cargo for such expenses and freight.

d) If at any stage of the voyage after the loading of the cargo commences, it appears that, in the reasonable judgement of the Master and/or the Owners, the Vessel, her cargo, crew or other persons on board the Vessel may be, or are likely to be, exposed to War Risks on any part of the route (including any canal or waterway) which is normally and customarily used in a voyage of the nature contracted for, and there is another longer route to the discharging port, the Owners shall give notice to the Charterers that this route will be taken. In this event the Owners shall be entitled, if the total extra distance exceeds 100 miles, to additional freight which shall be the same percentage of the freight contracted for as the percentage which the extra distance represents to the distance of the normal and customary route.

e) The Vessel shall have liberty:-

(i) to comply with all orders, directions, recommendations or advice as to departure, arrival, routes, sailing in convoy, ports of call, stoppages, destinations, discharge of cargo, delivery or in any way whatsoever which is given by the Government of the Nation under whose flag the Vessel sails, or other Government to whose laws the Owners are subject, or any other Government which so requires, or any body or group acting with the power to compel compliance with their orders or directions;

(ii) to comply with the orders, directions or recommendations of any war risks underwriters who have the authority to give the same under the terms of the war risks insurance;

(iii) to comply with the terms of an resolution of the Security Council of the United Nations, any directives of the European Community, the effective orders of any other Supranational body which has the right to issue and give the same, and with national laws aimed at enforcing the same to which the Owners are subject, and obey the orders and directions of those who are charged with their enforcement;

(iv) to discharge at any other port my cargo or part thereof which may render the Vessel liable to confiscation as a contraband carrier;

(v) to call at any other port to change the crew or any part

The old original Bills of Lading to be marked "null and void", afterwards to be returned to owners.

39. Stoppage Clause:

Charterers to have the option of stopping the vessel at any suitable anchorage outside the territorial waters of the load port/area, or en route to discharge area, or outside the territorial waters of the discharge port/area. Such anchorage is to be mutually agreed and Master to inform Charterers as soon as possible arrival time at the anchorage. Time to commence to count on arrival until heaving anchor for which Charterers to compensate Owners at the demurrage rate per day or pro rata Sundays and holidays included. Master to sail immediately on receiving instructions from Charterers. It is understood on arrival discharge port time counts as per Charter Party.

40. All the disputes from time to time arising out of this contract shall, unless the parties agree forthwith on a single Arbitrator, be referred to the final Arbitration of two Arbitrators carrying on business in London who shall be members of the Baltic Exchange and engaged in the Shipping and/or Grain Trades, one to be appointed by each of the parties, with power to such Arbitrators to appoint an Umpire.

Any claim must be made in writing and Claimant's Arbitrator to be appointed within twelve months of final discharge or termination of this charter party whichever the case maybe, and where this provision is not complied with the claim shall be deemed to be waived and absolutely barred.

No award shall be questioned or invalidated on the ground that any of the Arbitrators is not qualified as above, unless objection to his acting be taken within seven days of the appointment being made.

The Arbitration to be on documents only for claim not exceeding USD$100,000, but the parties agreement to dispense with oral hearing is not to have any effect on the rights to challenge an award under the Arbitration Act 1996. Costs are to follow the event but the recoverable costs of the Arbitration on a documents only Arbitration will be limited to one third of the actually awarded amounts.

Arbitration in London in accordance with LMAA terms 1997, English Law to apply.
