PART II «SYNACOMEX 2000» Continent Grain Charterparty

1. Owners, Charterers

It is this day agreed between the party designated in Box 3, Owners of the Vessel named and described in Box 5, being now in position and expected ready to load as mentioned in Box 7, and the party designated in Box 4 as Charterers, THAT

2. Loading Port(s) and Cargo

The said Vessel being tight, staunch and in every way fit for the voyage, shall with all convenient speed proceed to the port/berth(s)/anchorage(s) place designated in Box 8, which in case of named port(s)/ berth(s)/anchorage(s) Owners acknowledge as safe and suitable for this Vessel and there load always afloat, unless safely aground has been specifically agreed in Box 8, in such safe berth, dock, wharf or anchorage where it is customary for vessels of similar size and draft to load as Charterers or their Agents or Shippers may direct a full-and-complete cargo of wheat and/or maize and/or rye and/or barley as described in Box 11 in metric tons (10-% more or less in Owners option) in bulk. Charterers Shippers have the option of using a second safe berth in port(s) (as per Box 8). The time for shifting between the two berths at any port(s) shall count as laytime, but shifting expenses shall be for Vessel's account. Owners shall provide and install at their risk and expense and on their time all that is required for safe stowage of grain according to local and international regulations.

Owners warrant vessel is able to load the contracted cargo and sail safely without requiring bagging/strapping/securing.

The cargo shall not exceed what the Vessel can reasonably stow and carry over and above her bunkers, apparel, stores, provisions and accommodation. The whole cargo shall be carried and stowed under deck where it is readily accessible in unobstructed main holds.

All cargo on board to be delivered.

Furthermore, if stowage bags have been specifically agreed, the following shall apply:

Charterers shall supply for stowage purposes a quantity of bagged cargo not exceeding the quantity specified in Box 11, which shall be stowed at their risk and expense. The number of bags signed for on Bills of Lading to be binding on Vessel and Owners, unless error or fraud be proved.

3. Discharging Port(s)

Being so loaded, the Vessel shall proceed with all convenient speed direct to the place port/berth/anchorage designated in Box 10, which in case of named port(s)/berth(s)/anchorage(s) Owners acknowledge as safe and suitable for this Vessel, and there discharge the cargo always afloat, unless safely aground has been specifically agreed in Box 10, in such safe berth, dock, wharf or anchorage where it is customary for vessels of similar size and draft to discharge as Charterers or their Agents or Receivers may direct. Charterers Receivers have the option of using a second safe berth in port(s) (as per Box 10). The time for shifting between the two berths at any port(s) shall count as laytime, but shifting expenses shall be for Vessel's account.

4. Freight

The freight agreed under this Charter Party shall be as stated in Box 12, per metric ton on net Bill of Lading weight and shall be deemed earned upon signing and releasing Bills of Lading as cargo is loaded on board, prepaid discountless and non-returnable, Vessel and/or cargo lost or not lost.

The freight shall be paid as specified in Box 13.

All charges and dues levied on the cargo shall be for Charterers account and those levied on the Vessel howsoever assessed shall be for Owners account.

Wharfages and berth occupancy dues, taxes on freight and/or flag to be for Owners' account.

5. Loading and Discharging

Cargo shall be loaded, spout-trimmed and/or grab trimmed stowed at the risk and expense of Shippers/Charterers at the average rate stated in Box 14, per weather working day of 24 consecutive hours or pro-rata weather permitting.

1	Cargo shall be discharged at the risk and expense of Receivers/Charterers at the average rate stated in Box 15, weather permitting, per weather working day of 24 consecutive hours or pro-rata.	61

37	between 08.00 hours and 12.00 hours on Saturdays unless a Holiday. Such notice of readiness shall only be delivered when	96
38	Vessel is in the loading or discharging berth and in all respects ready to load/discharge. At loading port Shippers/ Charterers or their Agents have the privilege to inspect Vessel's holds and reject the notice when holds are not clean, dry, odourless and in all respects ready to receive the cargo to Shippers/Charterers satisfaction.	97
39	In case of dispute, an independent surveyor shall decide about Vessel's readiness to load, the party in the wrong bearing the costs. If the rejection of notice of readiness is undisputed or confirmed by surveyor the laytime will only start to count after the Vessel has validly tendered again when ready.	98
40	Only when the loading and/or discharging berth is unavailable, Master may warrant that the Vessel is in all respects ready and may tender notice of readiness to load and/or discharge from any usual waiting place, whether in port or not, whether in free pratique or not, whether customs cleared or not.	99
41	Laytime shall commence at 14.00 hours if notice of readiness to load and/or discharge is validly tendered at or before 12.00 hours and at 08.00 hours on the next working day if notice of readiness is validly tendered after 12.00 hours. Time used before commencement of laytime shall not count. Laytime shall not count between 12.00 hours on Saturdays or 17.00 hours on days preceding a Holiday and 08.00 hours on the following working day, unless used in which case half time actually used shall count.	100
42	Any delays caused by ice, floods, fire, quarantine, or by cases of force majeure shall not count as laytime unless the Vessel is already on demurrage.	101
43	Once on demurrage, always on demurrage, unless fault of the Owners/vessel and/or exceptions in the Charter Party.	102

PART II "SYNACOMEX 2000" Continent Grain Charter party

When Master has tendered notice of readiness to load or discharge from a waiting place and Vessel is subsequently found unready in application of the above provisions, laytime or time on demurrage shall not count from the time the Vessel is rejected until the time she is accepted. Additionally, any actual time lost on account of Vessel's obtaining free pratique or customs clearance shall not count as laytime or time on demurrage.	131	196
At second or subsequent port(s) of loading or discharging, laytime or time on demurrage shall resume counting from Vessel's a rival at loading or discharging berth, if available, or from Vessel's arrival at a usual waiting place, if berth is unavailable.	132	197
At all ports any time lost shifting from waiting place to berth shall not count as laytime or as time on demurrage.	133	198
9. Demurrage, Despatch Money Demurrage is payable by Charterers at the rate stated in Box 16 per day of 24 consecutive hours or pro rata. Owners shall pay to Charterers despatch money for workingtime laytime saved in loading/discharging at the rate stated in Box 16 per day of 24 consecutive hours or pro rata.	134	199
10. Seaworthy Trim If ordered to be loaded or discharged at more than one berth and/or port, the Vessel is to be left in seaworthy trim to Master's reasonable satisfaction for the passage between berths and/or ports at Shippers/Charterers/Receivers expense, and time used for placing Vessel in seaworthy trim shall count as laytime or time on demurrage.	135	200
11. Fumigation Charterers have the option liberty to fumigate the cargo on board at loading and discharging port(s) or places en route at their risk and expense. Charterers are responsible for ensuring that Officers and Crew as well as all other persons on board the Vessel during and after the fumigation are not exposed to any health hazards whatsoever. Master to strictly follow instructions as given by fumigation company. Charterers undertake to pay Owners all necessary expenses incurred because of the fumigation and time lost thereby shall count as laytime or time on demurrage. When fumigation has been effected at loading port and has been certified by proper survey or by a competent authority, Bills of Lading shall not be claused by Master for reason of insects having been detected in the cargo prior to such fumigation. If crew required to stay ashore by Port Authorities, lodging expenses to be for Charterer's account.	136	201
12. Lights and Gear Whenever required, Vessel shall supply free use of lights as on board but sufficient to carry on night work. Provided described as geared, Vessel, whenever required, shall supply free use of all cargo handling gear on board, in good working order, with the necessary power, and of runners, ropes and slings as on board. Shore hands shall be used to drive the gear, at Shippers /Charterers / Receivers account and responsibility. Any time actually lost on account of breakdown of Vessel's gear or loss of power shall not count as laytime or time on demurrage and any stevedore standby time charges incurred thereby shall be for Owners account. Provided described as geared Vessel always to have a valid gear certificate on board.	137
13. Agencies see clause 43. At loading port, Vessel shall be consigned to the Agents designated in Box 17. At discharging port, Vessel shall be consigned to the Agents designated in Box 18.	138
14. Extra Insurance Extra insurance on cargo due to Vessel's age and/or flag and/or class shall be for Owners account as per but limited to the amount specified in Box 19; such extra insurance shall be covered by Charterers for Owner's account and shall be deducted from initial payment settlement of freight.	139
15. Brokerage A brokerage commission as stated in Box 20 on the gross amount of freight, deadweight and demurrage earned, is due to the party (ies) designated in Box 20 and is deductible from same unless non-deductible has been specifically agreed.	140	196
16. Address Commission An address commission as stated in Box 21 on the gross amount of freight, deadweight and demurrage earned is due to Charterers and is deductible from freight, deadweight and demurrage.	141	202
17. ISM Clause From the date of coming into force of the International Safety Management (ISM) Code in relation to the Vessel and thereafter during the currency of this Charter Party, the Owners shall procure that both the Vessel and the Company (as defined by the ISM Code) shall comply with the requirements of the ISM Code. Upon request the Owners shall provide a copy of the relevant Document of Compliance (DOC) and Safety Management Certificate (SMC) to the Charterers. Except as otherwise provided in this Charter Party, loss, damage, expense or delay caused by failure on the part of the Owners or the Company to comply with the ISM Code shall be for the Owners account.	142	207
18. Bills of Lading The Master is to sign all clean on board/"shipped" Bills of Lading as and when presented without prejudice to the terms, conditions and exceptions of this Charter Party. If the Master delegates the signing of Bills of Lading to his Agents, he shall give them authority to do so in writing, copy of which is to be furnished to Charterers. See also clause 30. When Bills of Lading marked Freight prepaid are required, same shall be released by Owners immediately upon receipt of a telex from Charterers Bank confirming that freight payable has been irreversibly transferred.	143	208
19. Relet Charterers have the right to relet all or part of this Charter Party, they remaining responsible for its due fulfillment.	144	209
20. Deviation Deviation in saving or attempting to save life or property at sea or for bunkering purposes or any other reasonable deviation shall not be deemed an infringement of this Charter Party and the Owners shall not be liable for any loss or damage resulting therefrom.	145	210
21. Lien Clause The Owners shall have a lien on the cargo for freight, deadweight, demurrage, and average contribution due to them under this Charter Party. Charterers responsibility under this Charter to cease on cargo being shipped except for freight, deadweight and demurrage.	146	211
22. Responsibilities and Immunities Except as otherwise provided and stipulated in this Charter Party, it is hereby expressly agreed that this Charter Party shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Hague Rules contained in the International Convention for the Unification of certain rules relating to Bills of Lading, dated Brussels the 25th August 1924, as enacted in the country of shipment. These rules shall apply to any Bill of Lading issued under this Charter Party. When no such enactment is in force in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply, but in respect of shipments to which no such enactments are compulsorily applicable, the terms of the said Convention shall apply. In trades where the International Brussels Convention 1924 as amended by the Protocol signed at Brussels on February 23rd, 1968 - The Hague - Visby Rules - apply compulsorily, the provisions of the respective legislation shall apply. The Owners shall in no case be responsible for loss of or damage to cargo howsoever arising prior to loading into and after discharge from the Vessel.	147	212

Save to the extent otherwise in this Charter Party expressly provided, neither party shall be responsible for any loss or damage or delay or failure in performance hereunder resulting from Act of God, war, civil commotion, quarantine, strikes, lockouts, arrest or restraint of princes, rulers and peoples or any other event whatsoever which cannot be avoided or guarded against.	265 266 267 268 269 270 271	341 342 343 344 345 346 347
23. Amended General Ice Clause	272	348
Port of Loading	273	349
a) In the event of the loading port being inaccessible by reason of ice when Vessel is ready to proceed from her last port or at any time during the voyage or on Vessel's arrival or in case frost sets in after Vessel's arrival, the Master for fear of being frozen in is at liberty to leave without cargo, and this Charter Party shall be null and void.	274 275 276 277 278 279	350 351 352 353 354 355
b) If during the loading the Master, for fear of Vessel being frozen in, deems it advisable to leave, he has liberty to do so with what cargo he has on board and to proceed to any other port or ports with option of completing cargo for Owner's benefit to any port or ports including port of discharge. Any part cargo thus loaded under this Charter Party to be forwarded to destination at Vessel's expense but against payment of freight; provided that no extra expenses be thereby caused to the Receivers, freight being paid on quantity delivered (in proportion if lumpsum), all other conditions as per Charter Party.	280 281 282 283 284 285 286 287 288 289 290	356 357 358 359 360 361 362 363 364 365
e) In case of more than one loading port, and if one or more of the ports are closed by ice, the Master or Owners to be at liberty either to load the part cargo at the open port and fill up elsewhere for their own account as under section b) or to declare this Charter Party null and void unless Charterers agree to load full cargo at the open port.	291 292 293 294 295 296	366 367
Port of Discharge	297	368
a) Should ice prevent Vessel from reaching port of discharge, Receivers shall have the option of keeping Vessel waiting until the re-opening of navigation and paying demurrage, or of ordering the Vessel to a safe and immediately accessible port where she can safely discharge without risk of detention by ice. Such orders to be given within 48 hours after Master or Owners have given notice to Charterers of the impossibility of reaching port of destination.	298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306	369 370 371 372
b) If during discharging the Master for fear of Vessel being frozen in deems it advisable to leave, he has liberty to do so with what cargo he has on board and to proceed to the nearest accessible port where she can safely discharge.	307 308 309 310	373 374 375
e) On delivery of the cargo at such port, all conditions of the Bill of Lading shall apply and Vessel shall receive the same freight as if she had discharged at the original port of destination, except that if the distance of the substituted port exceeds 100 nautical miles, the freight on the cargo delivered at the substituted port to be increased in proportion.	311 312 313 314 315 316 317	376 377 378 379 380 381 382 383 384 385
24. Amended Centrocon Strike Clause	318	386
If the cargo cannot be loaded by reason of Riots, Civil Commotions or of a Strike or Lock-out of any class of workmen essential to the loading of the cargo, or by reason of obstructions or stoppages beyond the control of the Charterers caused by Riots, Civil Commotions or a Strike or Lock-out on the Railways, or in the Docks, or other loading places, or if the cargo cannot be discharged by reason of Riots, Civil Commotions or of a Strike or Lock-out of any class of workmen essential to the discharge, the time for loading or discharging, as the case may be, shall not count during the continuance of such causes, provided that a Strike or Lock-out of the Shippers and/or Receivers men shall not prevent demurrage accruing if by the use of reasonable diligence they could have obtained other suitable labour at rates current before the Strike or Lock-out. In case of any delay by reason of the before-mentioned causes, no claim for damages or demurrage, shall be made by the Charterers / Receivers of the cargo, or Owners of the Vessel. For the purpose, however, of settling despatch money accounts, any time lost by the Vessel through any of the above causes shall be counted as time used in loading or discharging, as the case may be.	319 320 321 322 323 324 325 326 327 328 329 330 331 332 333 334 335 336 337 338 339 340	393 394 395 396 397 398 399 400 401 402 403 404 405 406 407 408 409 410 411 412 413 414 415 416 417 418
25. General Average and New Jason Clause	341	348
General average shall be adjusted according to the York-Antwerp Rules 1994 or any subsequent modification thereof, but where the adjustment is made in accordance with the law and practice of the United States of America, the following Clause shall apply:	342 343 344 345 346 347
In the event of accident, danger, damage or disaster before or after the commencement of the voyage, resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which, or for the consequence of which, the carrier is not responsible, by statute, contract or otherwise, the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods shall contribute with the carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods.	348 349 350 351 352 353 354 355 356 357
If a salvaging ship is owned or operated by the carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the said waiving ship or ships belonged to strangers. Such deposit as the carrier or his Agents may deem sufficient to cover the estimated contribution of the goods and any salvage and special charges thereon shall, if required, be made by the goods, shippers, consignees or owners of the goods to the carrier before delivery	358 359 360 361 362 363 364 365
and the Charterers shall procure that all Bills of Lading issued under this Charter Party shall contain the same clause.	366 367
26. Both-to-Blame Collision Clause	368	368
If the liability for any collision in which the Vessel is involved while performing this Charter Party falls to be determined in accordance with the laws of the United States of America, the following Clause shall apply:	369 370 371 372
If the ship comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect or default of the Master, mariner, pilot or the servants of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship, the owners of the goods carried hereunder will indemnify the carrier against all loss or liability to the other or non-carrying ship or her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of or damage to or any claim whatsoever of the owners of the said goods, paid or payable by the other or non-carrying ship or her owners to the owners of the said goods and set off, recouped or recovered by the other or non-carrying ship or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying ship or carrier.	373 374 375 376 377 378 379 380 381 382 383 384 385
The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the Owners, Operators or those in charge of any ship or ships or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect to a collision or contact and the Charterers shall procure that all Bills of Lading issued under this Charter Party shall contain the same Clause.	386 387 388 389 390 391
27. War Risks ("Voywar 1993")	392	392
a) For the purpose of this Clause, the words:	393
(i) Owners shall include the shipowners, bareboat charterers, disponent-owners, managers or other operators who are charged with the management of the Vessel, and the Master; and	394 395 396 397
(ii) War Risks shall include any war (whether actual or threatened), act of war, civil war, hostilities, revolution, rebellion, civil commotion, warlike operations, the laying of mines (whether actual or reported), acts of piracy, acts of terrorists, acts of hostility or malicious damage, blockades (whether imposed against all vessels or imposed selectively against vessels of certain flags or ownership, or against certain cargoes or crews or otherwise howsoever), by any person, body, terrorist or political group, or the Government of any state whatsoever, which, in the reasonable judgement of the Master and/or the Owners, may be dangerous or are likely to be or to become dangerous to the Vessel, her cargo, crew or other persons on board the Vessel.	398 399 400 401 402 403 404 405 406 407 408 409 410
b) If at any time before the Vessel commences loading, it appears that, in the reasonable judgement of the Master and/or the Owners, performance of the Charter Party, or any part of it, may expose, or is likely to expose, the Vessel, her cargo, crew or other persons on board the Vessel to War Risks, the Owners may give notice to the Charterers cancelling this Charter Party, or may refuse to perform such part of it as may expose, or may be likely to expose, the	411 412 413 414 415 416 417 418

Vessel, her cargo, crew or other persons on board the Vessel to War Risks; provided always that if this Charter Party provides that loading or discharging is to take place within a range of ports, and at the port or ports nominated by the Charterers the Vessel, her cargo, crew, or other persons onboard the Vessel may be exposed, or may be likely to be exposed, to War Risks, the Owners shall first require the Charterers to nominate any other safe port which lies within the range for loading or discharging, and may only cancel this Charter Party if the Charterers shall not have nominated such safe port or ports within 48 hours of receipt of notice of such requirement.

c) The Owners shall not be required to continue to load cargo for any voyage, or to sign Bills of Lading for any port or place, or to proceed or continue on any voyage, or on any part thereof, or to proceed through any canal or waterway, or to proceed to or remain at any port or place whatsoever, where it appears, either after the loading of the cargo commences, or at any stage of the voyage thereafter before the discharge of the cargo is completed, that, in the reasonable judgement of the Master and/or the Owners, the Vessel, her cargo (or any part thereof), crew or other persons on board the Vessel (or any one or more of them) may be, or are likely to be, exposed to War Risks. If it should so appear, the Owners may by notice request the Charterers to nominate a safe port for the discharge of the cargo or any part thereof, and if within 48 hours of the receipt of such notice, the Charterers shall not have nominated such a port, the Owners may discharge the cargo at any safe port of their choice (including the port of loading) in complete fulfillment of the Charter Party. The Owners shall be entitled to recover from the Charterers the extra expenses of such discharge and, if the discharge takes place at any port other than the loading port, to receive the full freight as though the cargo had been carried to the discharging port and if the extra distance exceeds 100 miles, to additional freight which shall be the same percentage of the freight contracted for as the percentage which the extra distance represents to the distance of the normal and customary route, the Owners having a lien on the cargo for such expenses and freight.

d) If at any stage of the voyage after the loading of the cargo commences, it appears that, in the reasonable judgement of the Master and/or the Owners, the Vessel, her cargo, crew or other persons on board the Vessel may be, or are likely to be, exposed to War Risks on any part of the route (including any canal or waterway) which is normally and customarily used in a voyage of the nature contracted for, and there is another longer route to the discharging port, the Owners shall give notice to the Charterers that this route will be taken. In this event the Owners shall be entitled, if the total extra distance exceeds 100 miles, to additional freight which shall be the same percentage of the freight contracted for as the percentage which the extra distance represents to the distance of the normal and customary route.

e) The Vessel shall have liberty:-

- (i) to comply with all orders, directions, recommendations or advice as to departure, arrival, routes, sailing in convoy, ports of call, stoppages, destinations, discharge of cargo, delivery or in any way whatsoever which are given by the Government of the Nation under whose flag the Vessel sails, or other Government to whose laws the Owners are subject, or any other Government which so requires, or any body or group acting with the power to compel compliance with their orders or directions;
- (ii) to comply with the orders, directions or recommendations of any war risks underwriters who have the authority to give the same under the terms of the war risks insurance;
- (iii) to comply with the terms of an resolution of the Security Council of the United Nations, any directives of the European Community, the effective orders of any other Supranational body which has the right to issue and give the same, and with national laws aimed at enforcing the same to which the Owners are subject, and obey the orders and directions of those who are charged with their enforcement;
- (iv) to discharge at any other port my cargo or part thereof which may render the Vessel liable to confiscation as a contraband carrier;
- (v) to call at any other port to change the crew or any part

31. At load and/or discharge port(s) - laytime shall commence to count at 0800 hours on the next working day after notice of readiness is validly tendered to Shippers/Agents respectively Receivers/Agents.

At second or subsequent load port and or discharge port if used, laytime or time on demurrage to commence to count on arrival provided tendered during usual local office hours, otherwise from next working period.

32. If by reason of congestion vessel is unable to enter the loading port(s) / discharging port(s), Master has the privilege to tender Notice of Readiness in accordance with the Charter Party in writing and laytime is to commence as per Clause 31, whether in berth or not, whether in port or not, whether in free pratique or not, whether entered customs or not, provided the vessel has arrived at the usual waiting berth or anchorage of the port. Shifting time from anchorage or place of waiting to first loading / discharging berth not to count. Should the vessel be unable to obtain free pratique and/or custom's Vessel clearance by reason of vessel's crew's deficiencies, or should the vessel be found not to be in a load ready condition by Shippers/Receivers/Charterers on arrival at the berth, an entitled new valid written Notice of Readiness is to be tendered when the vessel is in every respect ready. Time not to count only from rejection until acceptance of the holds.

33. Any opening/closing of hatches to be for Owners' account, provided same permitted by local authorities, otherwise same to be for Charterers' account.

34. Shifting Clause:
 Time used to shift from layby berth, anchorage, roads to loading/discharging berth not to count, even if vessel already on demurrage.

35. Any warping along berth(s) to be for vessel's account and time to count as laytime or time on demurrage and same to be done by vessel's crew.

36. Owners do not have the option of completing with any other cargo/es and or part cargo/es.

37. Demurrage/despatch, at both ends to be settled directly between Owners and Charterers.

38. Charterers are allowed to change the discharge port(s) and/o notify party and/or to order party named in the original Bill(s) of Lading provided the complete set of the original Bills of Lading is delivered up to Owners nominated agent as stated in Box 17 at the same time as the new set of Bills of Lading are issued and released by Owners nominated Agent and provided Owners have approved the draft new set of Bills of Lading. The old original Bills of Lading to be marked "null and void", afterwards to be returned to owners.

39. Stoppage Clause:

Charterers to have the option of stopping the vessel at any suitable anchorage outside the territorial waters of the load port/area, or en route to discharge area, or outside the territorial waters of the discharge port/area. Such anchorage is to be mutually agreed and Master to inform Charterers as soon as possible arrival time at the anchorage. Time to commence to count on arrival until heaving anchor for which Charterers to compensate Owners at the demurrage rate per day or pro rata Sundays and holidays included. Master to sail immediately on receiving instructions from Charterers. It is understood on arrival discharge port time counts as per Charter Party.

40. All the disputes from time to time arising out of this contract shall, unless the parties agree forthwith on a single Arbitrator, be referred to the final Arbitrament of two Arbitrators carrying on business in London who shall be members of the Baltic Exchange and engaged in teh Shipping and/or Grain Trades, one to be appointed by each of the parties, with power to such Arbitrators to appoint an Umpire.

Any claim must be made in writing and Claimant's Arbitrator to be appointed within twelve months of final discharge or termination of this charter party whichever the case maybe, and where this provision is not complied with the claim shall be deemed to be waived and absolutely barred.

No award shall be questioned or invalidated on the ground that any of the Arbitrators is not qualified as above, unless objection to his acting be taken within seven days of the appointment being made.

The Arbitration to be on documents only for claim not exceeding USD$100,000, but the parties agreement to dispense with oral hearing is not to have any affect on the rights to challenge an award under the Arbitration Act 1996. Costs are to follow the event but the recoverable costs of the Arbitration on a documents only Arbitration will be limited to one third of the actually awarded amounts.

Arbitration in London in accordance with LMAA terms 1997, English Law to apply.

41. (b) Owners and Charterers respectively warrant for themselves that at the date of this fixture and throughout the duration of this Charter Party they are not subject to any of the sanctions, prohibitions, restrictions or designation referred to in Sub-clause (a) which prohibit or render unlawful any performance under this Charter Party or any sublet or any Bills of Lading. Owners further warrant that the nominated vessel, or any substitute, is not a designated vessel.

(c) Furthermore, Owners and Charterers respectively warrant that they shall comply with all applicable sanctions, laws or regulations referred to in Sub-clause (a) throughout the duration of this Charterparty.

(d) If at any time during the performance of this Charter Party either party becomes aware that the other party is in breach of warranty as aforesaid, the party not in breach shall comply with the laws and regulations of any Government to which that party or the Vessel is subject, and follow any orders or directions which may be given by any body acting with powers to compel compliance, including where applicable the Owners' flag State. In the absence of any such orders, directions, laws or regulations, the party not in breach may, in its option, terminate the Charter Party forthwith or, if cargo is on board, direct the Vessel to any safe port of that party's choice and there discharge the cargo or part thereof.

(e) If, in compliance with the provisions of this Clause, anything is done or is not done, such shall not be deemed a deviation but shall be considered due fulfilment of this Charter Party.

(f) Notwithstanding anything in this Clause to the contrary, Owners or Charterers shall not be required to do anything which constitutes a violation of the laws and regulations of any State to which either of them is subject.

(g) Owners or Charterers shall be liable to indemnify the other party against any and all claims, losses, damage, costs and fines whatsoever suffered by the other party resulting from any breach of warranty as aforesaid.
